The Momentum Storm Window line offers the best in energy performance, while combining sleek, stylish lines and colors to meet the needs of yesterday's and today's building styles. Available in custom sizes to neatly fit virtually all window openings, and outfitted with a weep system to keep out any water penetration, this window has it all. Maximum weather-stripping gives this window great protection against air infiltration, while our easy to tilt sash make it a snap to clean from the inside of the house.

STORM DOOR & WINDOW COLLECTION

BECAUSE YOUR HOME
DESERVES THE BEST.

The word Momentum is synonymous with a new movement that is gathering popularity. At Stergis, we have combined the latest in innovation, design and value in our Momentum Window and Door Collection. Right from the start Builders, Architects and Consumers realized that the design options, color palette and unlimited size options are unmatched in today's market. If you can design it, we can build it.

The heavy walled, insulated door panels add strength, durability and insulating value.

The heavy duty corner gusset provides a lifetime of worry-free protection against the harshest of elements.

The Momentum Porch Enclosure is a welcome addition to any backyard living space. Designed to create an additional 3-season living space, the system includes a screen and storm panel system to let the sunlight and warm breezes pass through. The baked-on enamel finish guarantees years of maintenance free living. You can choose from any of our door designs to create your special outdoor environment.

Only the Momentum Storm Door comes with a stylish bevel frame design that will visually enhance any entry door. For additional rigidity, a panel 15 can be added as an option. An array of brass and pewter hardware options will put the right finishing touch on your door, making you the envy of the neighborhood.
